TILDEN'S WITHDRAWAL

Owing to a Lack of Vigorous Physical Energy

And the Fact that no Man is Essential to Party Success

He Begs to be Excused from Political Affairs.

The Moral Standard of the People is Seriously Impaired

"And Corruption, Fraud and Crime are Abroad in the Land."

Hendricks Would Have Felt it a Great Honor

To Have Been Renominated on the Old Ticket.

Voice of the Press on the Subject of Tilden's Withdrawal—The Various Hoops and Boomerangs Hatcheting One—New York Democracy Striving for Harmony—Washington Opinions on the Situation.

New York, June 13.—Following, for publication, it has been furnished for publication:

"NEW YORK, June 10, 1884.—Daniel Manning, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, New York.

"In my letter of June 10, 1880, addressed to the Democratic State Convention of New York, to the Democratic National Convention, I said: 'Having now borne faithfully my full share of labor and care in the public service, and wearing the marks of its burthen, I am now ready to lay aside my political office, and the moral standard of the people have been impaired. To redress these evils is a work of great difficulty and labor and cannot be accomplished without the most energetic and efficient personal action on the part of the Chief Executive of the Republic.'

"The canvas and administration which it is desired that I should undertake, will require a period of nearly five years, and I can't add any allusion as to their burden.

THREE YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

In the endeavor to save the city of New York and two years of experience in the responsible administration of New York, have made me familiar with the requirements of such a work.

"At the present time the consideration which induced my action in 1880, have become more imperative. I ought not to assume any task which would interfere with my friends.

IT IS NOT THE PHYSICAL STRENGTH

To carry through. To reform the administration of the Federal Government, to realize my own idea, and to fulfill the just expectations of the people would indeed warrant, as they could, such compensation.

"I believe it is a renunciation, re-election to the Presidency.

"To those who think my renunciation and re-election is indispensable to an effectual government, I say, 'No.'

VINIFICATION OF THEIR RIGHTS

Of a people to elect their rulers—violated in my opinion, has accorded as a natural consequence of my decision to withdraw, but I cannot overcome my repugnance to enter a new engagement which involves four years of ceaseless toil. The dignity of the presidential office, above a merely personal ambition, but it creates a strong aversion.

It is this great power for good to the country which I have accorded as a natural consequence of my decision to withdraw, but I cannot overcome my repugnance to enter a new engagement which involves four years of ceaseless toil. THE DAILY BULLETIN.
FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1884.

OREGON has defeated woman suffrage.

The Democracy of Texas are enthusiastic for the old ticket.

The Western Natl Association has reduced the card rate from $2.60 to $2.40.

The Prohibitionists of Kentucky will hold a state convention at Louisville, on July 3.

Hon. J. S. McDonald, of Indiana, says Blaine and Logan cannot hope to carry that State under any circumstances.

It has been settled that the Senate will not discriminate against Confederate soldiers in the bill to pension Mexican veterans.

It is broadly hinted that President Arthur is not elevating his hat to any conspicuous altitude over the nomination of the Plumed Knight.

THAT was a decidedly long ride, from California to Maine. The Golden State delegation should individually and severally have an office, if Blaine is elected.

Mr. HENDRICKS says he would have considered a candidacy on the old ticket a great honor and election a rebuke to the fraud of 1876, but personally he cares little about it.

CINCINNATI seems to be able to keep up her reputation. She is working off her murderer as rapidly as possible, but furnishes new ones about as fast as the old are disposed of. The supply seems to be equal to the demand.

THE average increase per county of the common school fund to be distributed under the new law will be over $2,000. As the number of districts is not increased, this means considerable more money for each teacher.

JUDGE G. S. WALL, Chairman of the Ninth Congressional District, has called a meeting of the various county committees in said district, to meet at Greenup, Ky., to select the time and place of holding a convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress. The Chairmen will meet on Saturday, June 21, 1884, at 12 m., at the above place, and it is to be hoped that there will be a full attendance, and that an early day will be selected for the convention, so that the nominee may be able to make a thorough canvass of the district.

Judge Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat says: "Judge Riddell is too well known to need any expression at our hands. His whole life has been spent with this people, and his conduct and his history is a part of the history of Eastern Kentucky. He is still in the vigor of life and has come up through a succession of offices by which he has been trained for this position. That he will make a good, honest and upright Judge no one who knows him will doubt. His career has been remarkable in that he has never been defeated in a single instance for any position he has sought."

TIG New York Sun in referring to Mr. Tilden's letter declining the Democratic nomination for the Presidency says: In words that convey as well as words can, the unalterable resolution of a mind loyly in its unselfish patriotism, Mr. Tilden rejects his "message of four years ago to the Democratic party. The considerations that moved him then are those which now determine his course. Not because he is unwilling to sacrifice what remains to him of life and health but because he feels himself unable to undertake and perform the duties of the great trust, the foremost statesman of the Republic refuses again the nomination which the party stands ready to give him by his unanimous voice.

After his letter of declination to the New York delegates in the Cincinnati convention of 1880, Mr. Tilden telegraphed to Mr. Daniel Manning this supplementary message: "No friend must be allowed to cast a doubt on my motives or my sincerity." From that time to this no friend whose information has qualified him to judge of Mr. Tilden's purposes has ever doubted for an instant that he regarded his difficult and enduring work in the public service as forever closed.

The letter printed this morning has been written only because a great majority of the Democratic voters of this land still look with a lingering hope to the man whom they elected eight years ago, and who personifies the vital principles and ideas that will prevail with Democratic victory. The nomination was his; he cannot accept it. The honor that is the rich reward of noble services faithfully rendered was never brighter than at this hour.

Mr. Tilden has been elected President of the United States. Superficial to all personal ambition, he has twice declined a re-election; and the years of life that still remain to him will be made happy by accumulating acknowledgments of the nation's debt of profound gratitude and veneration.

Mr. Allison gave notice that he will ask the Senate to consider the Postal Telegraph Bill Monday.

Mr. Allison suggested that Butler's resolution for the investigation of the New York Stock Exchange be referred to the Committee on Finance.

"I am afraid," said Butler, "if the committee get hold of this resolution, it will meet the fate of a similar one on the same subject last year."

Mr. Merrill took exception to the report. He declared that the Finance Committee was proceeding with the matter diligently.

He voted for the resolution, went over for the present.

The Consular and Diplomatic Bill was taken up and passed—10 yeas, 2 nays [Vance and Van Wyck].

F. Butler, Col. Fitch, and others in this country, together with some people of influence in Nicaragua, were interested."

"The term within which the work must be begun has not been specified, but it is to be done within two years."

"The amount to be expended is $250,000, which he has asked Congress to appropriate for expenses under the Neutrality Act, whether to purchase the rights of the original grantee or to secure an extension of the time, or both, cannot yet be learned."

Master Car Builders' Convention.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 13.—The Convention of Master Car Builders assembled again at 10 o'clock this morning. Secretary Farley presided on the manual of business, and the discussion of wheels and fenders was read, discussed and adopted. The chair will appoint a committee of five to experiment on the subject and report at next year's convention.

"Reports were read and adopted on lettering of cars or trucks and brackets, and the best method of repairing cars by piece work."

"The last time I saw you were farming. How do you go into the manufacturing business?"

"Why, the tariff is so high that all the farmers in our section of the country became bankrupt, and had to leave the country to find the price right."

"But they are overproduced, have made even manufacturing unprofitable."

"That is true of a great many industries but we applied the protective principle to our business and now we're making money."

"What do you mean by applying the protective principle?"

"We reduced the wages of our workers twenty-five per cent."—Brooklyn Eagle.

He who lives a full rounded life is not he who despises trifles, still less is it he who dwells in them, but he who, looking upon life with its wholeness, gives to each of its parts due respect and attention. He is too thoughtful to be frivolous, too earnest to be pithy.—Philosophical Ledger.

A WOMAN will wear a hat trimmed with birds, a sheaf of wheat, a small alligator and other articles of like description and be perfectly happy. Yet if the same woman will complain bitterly if her husband happens to come home with a plain, ordinary, everyday brick in his hat. Such, alas, is the inconsistency of women.

THERE will be a grand display of fireworks, from a flat boat anchored in the river in front of this city, on the nights of July 3rd and 4th, under the management of the officers of the trotting association. THE stockholders of the Maysville and Blue Run Turnpike Company met, recently, at the office of Judge W. P. Coons, and elected the following named gentlemen delegates: H. P. McIlvaine, C. E. THE London Lancet discusses the subject of rising at the dead of sleep. Dozing, it declares, is not admissible from any health point of view. The brain is the first to fall asleep, and is followed by the active organs, and is only perfect and natural when shared by all the several parts of the organism. All the parts of the system are not equally exhausted and those that did not soonest wake, while the most exhausted are overcome with great difficulty. The several parts of the organism should rest at the same time. To bring this about a person should "wake early and feel ready to rise; this fair and equal start of the sleepers should be secured, and a wise self manager should not allow a drowsy feeling of the consciousness, or weary senses, or an exhausted system to beguile him into the folly of going to sleep again when once his consciousness has been aroused." The writer declares that a man who will not allow himself to doze, will, in a few days, find himself almost unconsciously an "early riser."

Superior Court Convention.

We learn from the delegates to the appellate convention at Winchester, Ky., that the receipts at the Rees House amounted to $6,000, and that many of the boarding houses and private residences were filled with delegates and visitors. Had our neighboring counties assisted us, that convention would have been held at Maysville, and our citizens would have reaped the benefit. A convention to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, will be called some time in July, why should not Maysville be the place. The district is composed of forty-six counties, and Maysville is as accessible as either Lexington or the Blue Licks, and can present advantages superior to either point. Let a committee be appointed to attend the meeting of the chairmen of the district which will be held at Lexington on June 25th.

THESE are the dates for holding Kentucky fairs this year: Danville, August 5th, four days; Lexington, August 26th, five days; Hopkinsville, September 1st, four days; Bardstown, September 2nd, four days; Paris, September 2d, five days; Bowling Green, September 3rd, four days; Harford, September 30th, five days; Uniontown, October 1st, four days; Owensboro, October 8th, four days; Madisonville, October 22nd, four days.

LUCKY BOB SWAN.
Gainesburg.

Bob Swan, of this place, who served as Captain in the Thirteenth Indiana Infantry, applied for a pension, which was granted, with $5,250 back pay. To complete his pension large sums were needed, but after diligent search through the records they could not be found, which reminded Bob that at the time his company was mustered out he was detailed on duty elsewhere, and was evidently forgotten. Inasmuch as he was never mustered out, he will draw $35,000 as compensation.

EST INDIAN CORSETS.

Harper's Bazaar.

These corsets are formed out of the bark of a Madagascar tree on a principle which permits them every day to be worn in different ways and in form of exercise. These are wonderful productions of ingenuity, the color resembles the skin to a remarkable degree, and the material is so fine that the most delicate touch can hardly discern it.

From Indian fields. Of course, these corsets are seldom removed the bayadères sleeping in them. They thus preserve astonishingly beautiful figures to an advanced age, without pain or discomfort to themselves.

NOT A Bonnet in Mexico.

Women of every rank go bareheaded, and on the streets, either entirely without head covering, or with only a light veil-like screen for their glossy hair. It is well to dress in such a way, as there was not one bonnet in the city of Mexico. Bonnets and hats are still infrequently seen. Their presence attracts attention rather than their absence.

Women of the foreign missions are very fond of their robes; their wealthy sisters are content and even proud to expose their raven tresses. Bonnets, it is most needless to say, are not required in this climate for protection. The exception of the "Majolica" is worn only by the Indians, who are really glad that they are called in the vernacular "skin men," are to be met every hour in every city. The skinniest whom it has been my fortune to see walked through the porticos, carrying the other end only a single garment, a pair of white cotton pantaloons. A coarse white cotton cloth, known as manta, is the staple fabric for the dresses of the commonalty. The queerest skin man was a laborer, the hour he had been working only a single garment threw his shirt carelessly over one shoulder instead of carrying it on his back. Who would find fault with semi-nudity? What had such an explanation? No Mexican certainly would or did. Naked children playing in the sun and dirt are a common sight. The urchins seem to enjoy themselves.

SOCIAL LIFE IN MEXICO

The Whole Country Virtually in a State of Revolution.

Absurd Rumors Concerning the Concentration of American Troops—The Crime of Murder Running Rife in the Land.

MATAMOROS, Mex., June 18.—Incredible rumors are being circulated in and about Matamoros. It is said that the old rebel General Cortivas and other Generals have broken their paroles and disappeared; that 15,000 troops are on the frontier to help Diaz. Other rumors are of like character. Another report says that Louis Conozas, Collector of Customs at Nuevo Laredo, is to be removed and sent here to take military command.

Two important captures of criminals have been made. One was no less a person than Senor Vidal, a prominent citizen of Matamoros, who was charged with the murder of Senor Castro, the engineer assassinated on his plantation some weeks ago by an unknown party, who shot him through the doorway of his house. It is said he had a son who lived on his place, and that he gave them $200 to assassinate Senor Castro.

The second capture was that of four men charged with the murder of Mr. Ermin, an old ranchman, who was recently strangled in the San Saveronino College building.

Two other captures were also made and were followed by the execution which the United States is possible to Justice Lynch, but in Mexico is accomplished by the law, which allows officers much latitude in dealing with prisoners. The first case was that of Gabriel Canama, who was captured at Ciudad Victoria, and sent to Coahuila. His guards, whom he got near, gave him a chance to make a break for liberty and shot him down as he reached the edge of the woods.

At the jail at the Carrillo-Hacienda, State of Quintana, Losano's guards captured two lime burners charged with train wrecking, and promptly executed them.

It is a fact of the same kind that how this arbitrary power of execution may be abused.

At Uruapan a young fellow, scarcely out of his teens, was arrested by the police, charged with some offense or other. He was beaten and tortured in most pitiful manner to be allowed to go under guard to his home and let his family know of his arrest, but this request was sternly refused, and as he got near the jail he made a desperate attempt to escape, and was bodily shot by the brutal police who had him in charge. The law justified the act.

Comparatively few murders have darkened the criminal record of the past few weeks.

At Villa Alvarez, State of Oaxaca, however, the civil judge was murdered by unknown parties, his body being found at dawn by some persons going to the market.

At Cordova, in a personal difficulty, Signor Luis Curbago was wounded in the stomach, and at Pueblo a fellow named Don Pedro Hernandez was killed.

On Santa Ana Plaza in the City of Mexico, on Monday, a soldier was being taken to the military prison at Santiago, Tlalilco, when he was, without provocation, shot by the corporal of the guard. The other soldiers who witnessed the brutal officer and the gunsmoke had to interfere to save his life, one soldier being wounded in the fight, and the poor wife of the murdered prisoner being brutally beaten.

At Ciudad de Dallas, on the 3d, with fire originating in a bakery destroyed nine tea houses, among them four stores, a Tinder, State of Oaxaca, the school house and jail were also destroyed by fire.

Near San Bernardo, State of Oaxaca, a hail storm completely ruined orchards and crops, and killed hundreds of cattle, horses and sheep.
